Mark McGrotty

64 Red Spring Rd

Andover MA 01810

978-806-5285

Mark_McGrotty@student.uml.edu

PROGRAMMING SKILLS:

- 5 years of experience in repairing and building computers
- Coding Languages:
    - C/C#/C++/
    - CSS/HTML/JavaScript
- Experienced with Kinect V2 programming
- Worked with Unity 3D
- Familiar with Agile software development, and Object Orientated Programming concepts

PERSONAL ATTRIBUTES:

- Strong communication skills with customers and team members.
- Passionate about technology, almost always up to speed
- Observant, Patient and Persistent

EDUCATION:

- B.S. Computer Science
  University of Massachusetts, Lowell, MA
  Graduating 2016

EMPLOYMENT:

- Easy Tech Technician, Staples North Andover (Summer of 2014)
    - Virus Removal, Software Installation, Hardware repair/installation.
    - Sales Associate
    - Cashier
- Stage Hand, J Everett Collins Center for the Preforming Arts (2009-2011)
    - Running Crew which involved moving or removing set pieces between or during scenes
    - Ropes which changing the backdrops between scenes
    - Sound board operator for music and the actors
    - Set Construction

EXTRACURRICULARS:

- Tae Kwon Do
- Andover High School T.V. Crew
- Andover High School Gymnastics (Varsity)

PERONAL PROJECTS:

- PlayStation 2, Wii, Xbox and Xbox 360 Repairs and modifications
- Built numerous computers for friends and family.
- Maintained a personal server for Source games (ie. Counter Strike and Garry's Mod), Minecraft and Ventrilo and Storage

MISC:

- Shadowed at Amcom Software to learn important work skills such as project management, customer support, product assurance, and software development. Shadowing involved working with employees, attending SCRUM meetings and listening to calls made to support.